Sep. 13--A Washington, D.C.-based group has poured $100,000 into third-party ads and campaign activities in Washington's 35th District -- a large bomb in a big-money offensive by labor and other groups to topple conservative Democratic Sen. Tim Sheldon.

The Progressive Majority, which is backing left-of-center and minority candidates in several state and local races around the country, gave more than half of the $187,323 reported spent so ...
